Message from the Staff

Happy Valentine's Day, everyone! There are so many great people in our world who continue to inspire me-especially all of you. I can not express enough the love and appreciation I have for each one of you.

Take time to look at the winner of this year's annual Times Square Valentine Heart Design Competition, We were Strangers Once Too. http://www.timessquarenyc.org/times-square-arts/projects/at-the-crossroads/we-were-strangers-once-too/index.aspx. Love can conquer all! ~Liz Anne

Updates

Congratulations to Jennifer Okosun for her new position at Yaatra Ventures, to Vanessa Sewell for her new position at Nick's Chophouse and to Berhane Habteselassie for her new volunteer position at Holy Cross Hospital. A special shout out goes to Jennifer MacAdam Miller's daughter, Ella Jane Miller, who was a featured speaker last week for Dyslexia Advocacy Day in Annapolis.

Birthday wishes go out to Niah Kelly (February 3), Ronald Hosten (February 14), Befekadu Delessa (February 16) and to all others celebrating their birthdays in February.

Resource of the Week

The Montgomery County Volunteer Center's RSVP/AARP Tax-Aide Program is providing free tax preparation assistance to low-to-moderate income taxpayers who live or work in Montgomery County.

The Tax-Aide program has more than 100 volunteers who are trained to prepare simple federal and Maryland state tax forms. Taxes are prepared at more than 20 different locations across Montgomery County, and an appointment is required. The program runs during tax season, the second week of February through Tuesday, April 18.

Individuals can learn more specifics and schedule an appointment on-line at http://www.montgomeryserves.org/tax-aide/overview or call 240-777-2577.

News You Can Use

On Thursday, February 16th, communities across the globe will be celebrating World Read Aloud Day, a day when readers of all ages celebrate literacy and the "pure joy and power of reading aloud." There are many benefits to reading to your children, that include building a stronger relationship with you and developing academic excellence, basic speech skills, communication skills, logical thinking skills and the understanding that reading is fun.
